FEBRUARY 2010 MORRILL MUSINGS

Hairsteria: Celebrities and their Historical Look-Alikes

Treat yourself to an entertaining and informative slideshow and lecture on Thursday, Feb. 11 at 7:30 p.m. Local historian and genealogist Maureen Taylor will talk about how today's fashionable hairstyles may seem unique, but are actually rooted in history. In her new book, Fashionable Folks: Hairstyles 1840-1900, Taylor uses old photographs to show how hairstyles and facial hair changed throughout the 19th century. Sign up at the library or call 781-769-0200, x222.

THINK FASTER. REACT MORE QUICKLY. The library is offering free drop-in sessions to introduce patrons to DriveSharp Software which helps seniors improve their reaction time on the road. The goal is to cut the odds of crashing in half by increasing field of vision and improving accuracy, attention and memory. Interested? Sign up at the library or call 781-769-0200, x222 for either or both sessions:

Tuesday, Feb. 23 from 10 a.m. to noon

CUSTOMER SURVEY

The Morrill Memorial Library staff and trustees would like your comments and feedback. We are surveying the community for our long-range strategic planning process, 2010-2015. The survey will be available online (click on the link on our website) and in print after the first week of February. Print copies will be available throughout the library and we ask that you complete one and leave it at the library or return it at your convenience before February 28, 2010.

Please take the time to complete the survey and we look forward to your comments and responses.
